THANK YOU

As we celebrate a decade of service,
we begin by thanking Allah (SWT).

We'd also like to thank you.

Over the past 10 years, through faith, dedication,
and the generosity of our community, we've achieved
milestones that once seemed like dreams.

From inspiring young minds to supporting families, every success has been made possible by your contributions of time, skills, and resources.

This booklet showcases the journey we've taken together, and we look forward to continue building on these achievements in the years ahead, Insha'Allah.

ABOUT US

For over a decade, The Eden Foundation has been the heart of the Huddersfield Muslim community. We are dedicated to preserving Islamic values through education, spiritual development, and community service. From nurturing young minds to empowering adults and supporting families, we are committed to building a stronger, God-conscious community—prepared for today's challenges and shaping a brighter, united future for tomorrow.

OUR VISION

To unlock the full potential of our community through Islamic teachings and practices, empowering every individual to live a dignified and God-conscious life. We aim to inspire personal and collective growth, rooted in faith, for the betterment of our community.

OUR MISSION

With collective effort, we empower the Muslim community to tackle modern challenges. Through education, welfare, and community initiatives, we create sustainable, God-centred change, enriching lives and strengthening bonds for generations to come.

OUR VALUES

The Masjid

"The most beloved places to Allah are the mosques."
– Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

The Masjid is central to The Eden Foundation's mission of uplifting the community through faith and education. Recognising its crucial role in building a God-conscious community, we prioritised developing the Highfields and Lindley Masajid.

These centres are inclusive spaces for worship, learning, and communal support, fostering both spiritual and personal growth. Our aim is to inspire and strengthen community bonds, ensuring everyone has access to the resources needed to lead a dignified, faith-driven life.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- 2 Active Masjids (Highfields and Lindley)
- 9+ English-speaking Imams
- 500+ attendees at Jumma across both sites
- 5 daily prayers
- Weekly Dars and Tajweed classes
- Dawah initiatives and revert support
- Open days and school assemblies
- Dynamic Ramadhan programmes for all ages
- Annual spiritual retreats
- Ladies Halaqahs
- Dads and Lads Breakfast Clubs (Fajr)
- Volunteers Training programme

Al Ihsan

"When Allah wills good for someone, He grants them understanding of the religion." – Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

Al Ihsan reflects The Eden Foundation's commitment to spiritual and moral growth through lifelong learning. This initiative offers a variety of courses, seminars, and workshops for all ages, including popular adult classes for men, women, and teenagers.

By providing these opportunities, Al Ihsan supports personal and spiritual development, helping individuals achieve Ihsan—excellence in worship, character, and conduct—and nurturing well-rounded, conscientious members of society.

The Maktab

"The first and foremost of the elements for nurturing a child is the pursuit of knowledge. For the knowledge instilled in children will shape their character and, in turn, the character of the society." – Ibn Khaldun

The Maktab at The Eden Foundation is a key initiative focused on nurturing children through a comprehensive Islamic education that covers Tajweed, moral teachings, and core Muslim values.

In addition to this foundation for younger students, the programme now includes a dedicated element for teenagers, formerly known as the North Star Project. This element offers mentorship, life skills, and Sanatain (pre-Alim class) to ensure that young people develop into well-rounded, God-conscious individuals with strong academic, professional, and spiritual foundations, ready to contribute positively to society.

Eden Welfare

"The most beloved people to Allah are those who are most beneficial to people." – Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

Eden Welfare plays a vital role in The Eden Foundation's mission to support both local and global communities. We provide essential aid, such as food parcels for local families, and were key in supporting workers during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Partnering with reputable international charities, we ensure effective and reliable zakat distribution. This initiative aligns with our values of service, dignity, and social responsibility, addressing immediate needs while contributing to global welfare, fostering a compassionate, God-conscious community.

Honeybee Childcare

"Each of you is a shepherd, and each of you is responsible for their flock." – Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

Honeybee Childcare at The Eden Foundation provides a nurturing, stimulating environment for early childhood development, grounded in Islamic values. We create a safe, engaging space where young children can explore, learn, and grow through age-appropriate activities.

By blending Islamic teachings with a comprehensive early years curriculum, we ensure children develop both strong moral values and essential life skills.

Our holistic approach supports their academic, social, and emotional growth, laying a solid foundation for future generations, aligned with our mission of faith, education, and care.

New Horizons Muslim Scouts

The Scouts Project is a collaborative initiative between The Eden Foundation and New Horizons Muslim Scouts, aimed at fostering leadership, resilience, and personal growth in young Muslims. Through outdoor adventures, community service, and life skills training, scouts gain confidence and a sense of responsibility.

By combining the core values of scouting with holistic education, the programme prepares participants for future challenges and positive contributions to society.

This initiative reflects our mission of nurturing empowered individuals who lead with integrity and compassion.
